BUYER agrees to keep the SELLER informed of any major health issues that may occur in the dog's lifetime. This enables the SELLER with to follow up on related puppies and gives important feedback on the health of the dogs for future generations.

Ownership & Training

BUYER understands the importance of owning this rare breed and agrees that they will strive to be a responsible owner and good representative of the breed and Club. BUYER further acknowledges that they have received, read, fully understand, and will adhere to all aspects of the AGCA Code of Ethics.

BUYER understands that owning a dog is a life-long commitment and agrees to provide appropriate shelter, proper and timely medical attention, proper grooming, and responsible care. This includes, but is not limited to, keeping puppy/dog parasite free, up to date with inoculations, proper nutrition, and fresh water available always.

BUYER will educate themselves on how to properly train their new puppy and agrees to not use the "no-touch method" nor other negative training method. BUYER is encouraged to utilize the resources available on the AGCA website (gampr.org). If intended as a livestock guardian, BUYER understands that puppies are not guardians and must be properly introduced to new livestock and animals, then worked with daily to grow into their role. If intended as a companion, early and consistent socialization and manners training is key.

If at any time the BUYER can no longer retain possession of this dog, BUYER must contact the SELLER immediately and be given first right of refusal, at no charge except for applicable transport costs. If the SELLER cannot take back possession of the dog, the BUYER agrees to collaborate with the SELLER and only rehome the dog to a home approved by the SELLER. Under no circumstances will this dog be sold, leased, traded or given away to any pet shop, research laboratory, animal shelter or similar facility.

Payment & Pick Up

Puppy may be reserved with a non-refundable deposit with the balance due at pick up.

Payment methods accepted: Cashiers Check, Money Order or Cash. No personal checks will be accepted.

If the SELLER cannot fulfill a puppy reservation, they will refund the deposit, or the BUYER may choose to transfer the deposit onto a future litter.

Puppy may be picked up between 8 & 10 weeks, at the discretion of the SELLER and agreed with the BUYER based on the puppy's intended purpose (indicated above). BUYER may pick up or arrange transport and is responsible for any incurred transportation costs.

Violations
